The Kyocera S14 Opal Series.
Part form, part function, part fun, part fashion.

If you have a lot to do, you might as well do it in style. That's the Kyocera S14's way of doing things. This lightweight flip phone is a combination of function and fashion that lets you access the Internet or send and receive emails and text messages.* It stores names, addresses and notes and has convenient tools like a calculator, alarm clock, stopwatch and countdown timer. And to make sure you don't blend in, it comes with up to 25 ringers. Plus, with trimode capability (CDMA digital PCS, CDMA digital cellular and analog), you can stay in touch just about anywhere.

The Kyocera S14. Form meets function and they get along smashingly.
